Gents Yours of 17th
Rec'd the 10 bore sample Gun looks well only ya have got the barrel too thin, especially at muzzle, and if ya did not bore them out as much it would be better, sell better and be safer? with these plain barrels customers like shorter barrels as if so thin they look unsafe - As to your proposition for trade we will take 50 of the 12 bores, part to have twist barrels for which we will pay regular advance for twist - and 10 - 10 bores like sample - provided that ya take of us as part pay 50 - of our 22 cal Revolvers @ 1.10
50 - " 32 " " " 2.50
and B/L Gun as order @ #35.00 - balance we to pay in Cash -

our 32 calibre Pistol is the best in market at price, has long cylinder and is fac simile of Colts new line, as this alone makes it saleable - we list them at #3.00 and we might to charge ya more than 2.50! If ya will do this ya may send 20 of the plain barrel 12 and 9-10 bore Guns at once by freight and we will then tell ya about the balance - we want the 12 bore

30 inch barrels and heavier than last if possible whole gun heavier — also see that all are chambered so as to take a 12 A brass shell, many of last lot had to be chambered over —

please advise us by return mail if you will accept this proposition? and oblige

Yours truly
William Read & Sons

P.S. —
We dont believe a Boys B/L Sun would pay to make, certainly would not in this market, as the 12 bore is small enough —

Sent Jours of 21st recd.
and we will accept your proposition, to send us 40 . 12 guage B/L Guns, to be heaviest you have
(must be heavier than last)
& 9 - 10 bore.
and to take as part pay 100 . our #1 Revolvers . 7 shot . plated @ $1.15
and 1 B/L . Gun @ $35.00
and you may send the Guns at once by freight.
please have the 12 bores 30 inch bls, and the 10s as per sample sent, but have the latter a little thicker at muzzle as sample was too thin altogether.
have all fitted for Brass Shells, 10 & 12 ft.
We will send Gun tomorrow and also part of Pistols
but we would consider it a favor if you will let us put in a few of our 32 calibre @ $2.50.
if only a dozen of them, as we have over
-stock of these, Can't you use such small quantity? please advise by return mail and if so we will send [redacted] of the £10 -

please be particular about the Guns and send good heavy barrels & thick muzzles —

and we are

Gentlemen,

In reply to yours of 2" inst. would say that I can buy the Robin Hood 32 at a good deal less than you quote - $2.15 or $2.25.

I have a full stock of Pistols and could not handle any at present at any price.

Your sample is here and you can get it when you come to town.

Sent your of 19th rec'd, As our season is about over we dont care to get too many guns to winter over, especially as there are one or two makes coming out (one by Forehand & Wadsworth, Worcester) which we want to see - the best we should want to do, to take 20 more of your Guns now, would be to pay you in part with 40 of the best quality Robin Hoods 32 calibe. like last. @ $2.50.

or if you prefer with 25 of these 32s @ $2.50
+ 25 " #1 long cylinder " 1.25

We have a Robin Hood 32 calibe which can sell @ $2.00. but those sent you are fac simile of the Colt, and have the round piece on left side of frame.

our only object in offering to trade is to reduce stock a little on these Colt model, and unless we can do some such way there is not profit enough on the Guns to pay! as they are sold in New York at better than $9.00 and we have to follow suit.

If you accept our proposition you can send Guns by freight at once - if not please let us know. and we are

Yours truly

William Read & Sons
