VOL. XVI NO. II

**** NEWS & NOTES ****

We are sorry to report that Charles M. Sandwick, Sr. has been hospitalized due to a stroke. We are happy to report that he is doing very well and hopes to go home soon. Charles is in room #601 at Easton Hospital. YOU ARE IN OUR HEARTS AND MINDS CHARLES!!!!

****

Stockertown Memorial Hall will be the home of the "Spring Dinner Meeting" April 13, 1989. More information will follow in the January RECORD.

****

There will be no Board meeting in December. The next meeting will be held in January.

****

The elections held at the Annual Meeting will be announced in the next edition due to lack of space.

**** CALENDER OF EVENTS ****

DECEMBER 4th - Open House 1 - 4 p.m. "An Old Fashioned Christmas" Jacobsburg Brew, cookies and refreshments for our palates! Trains, antique dolls, corn husk dolls and decorations for our pleasure! Come hear Yuletide Carols played on an old fashioned music box and visit with Bob Newell and his gun collection!

****

DECEMBER 4th - "Evergreen" 2 p.m. The scents of pine and fir stir memories and remind us of the coming winter. We'll learn the secrets of prickly needles, resin, cones and gracefully sweeping branches that make evergreens uniquely adapted to winter. The many varieties of evergreens available for the holidays will be discussed. Held in amphitheater.

DECEMBER 10 - "Christmas Naturally" 9:30 - 11:30 a.m. and 1 - 3 p.m. Discover how the abundant plants of fields and forests may adorn your winter hearth and home. Join us as we examine seeds, berries, stems, and leaves of native wild flowers to create beautiful arrangements. Held in amphitheater.

DECEMBER 27, - "Wintery Wonders" 1:30 - 3:00 each day. The hushed December woodlands tell us stories of survival and beauty as we explore Jacobsburg during the school vacation. Children ages 4 - 11 are welcome to join us in this classroom without walls.
