

Proposed
+ Spray
Mile/Sec

To whom it may concern. I Jane Henry widow relict, of the late honorable John Joseph Henry esq<sup>r</sup> deceased — who was one of the sons of the late William Henry esq<sup>r</sup> and Ann his wife, both late of the borough of Lancaster dec<sup>d</sup>. and one of the executors of the testament, and last will of said William Henry dec<sup>d</sup>. — and acting executor of the testament, and last will of said John Joseph Henry esq<sup>r</sup> dec<sup>d</sup>. Whereas William Henry esq<sup>r</sup> of Xanareth Northampton County State of Penn<sup>a</sup>: surviving executor of the testament, and last will of said William Henry esq<sup>r</sup> of the borough of Lancaster aforesaid dec<sup>d</sup>. has by his Attorney the Rev. John Notther presented the accounts and charges of the said estate of William Henry as well as also of the estate of said Ann Henry against my said late husband amounting to the sum of four thousand and forty four pounds ten shillings three pence three farthings of a debit of both the estates jointly it being the whole amount of charges as far as has come to the knowledge of the said surviving Executor, excepting however as it is said a Note or Bond remaining due upon the Administration of said Ann Henry's estate by Abraham and Benjamin W. Henry, registered in the Registers office at Lancaster, as also several sums received by said John Joseph Henry esq<sup>r</sup> deceased of James Reed Collector of Upper Paalson, amounting to thirty six pounds fifteen shillings and sixpence be the same more or less, with all other surplusage if any there be after deducting the due fee — debt and the share or shares of said John Joseph Henry esq in his said father and mother's estates, shall be duly accounted for to the said William Henry esq to be applied in discharging the respective apportionments of the heirs of William and Ann Henry dec<sup>d</sup>. . And I do hereby declare that after I have fully and carefully examined the whole of the said account to the best of my ability I am satisfied the same is just and correct.

Witness my hand this day of Anno Domini One thousand Eight hundred and fourteen.